2. Defendants are either citizens of the United States of America or Canada or are employed by, or associated with the International Hague Commission and/or are previous or current elected officials of local, state, provincial or federal government agencies of the United States, Canada or the International Hague Commission and/or an agency, entity, department or contractor of a local, state, provincial or federal entity of the United States, Canada or the International Hague Commission, or are affiliated with or employed by the International Hague Commission and thereby are within the jurisdiction of the World Wide Web Court of Public Justice.

Designated Factual Basis for Action

Plaintiffs hereby include by way of attachment to this Complaint, the factual basis of this case through the web site address www.luminadiem.com as well as the web sites listed within the Parties / Jurisdiction-Venue section of this Complaint. The primary evidence and factual basis contained within the Lumina Diem web site for all claims of relief are listed in the Case History and Transcript Sections including an introductory Home Page, Background Summary and Case History Index. The following are the Claims for Relief that are actionable in this Complaint:

Claims for Relief

1. By way of example in this Complaint, listed throughout the Lumina Diem factual basis web site but especially under Sections 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 15, 16, 17, 19, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, and including by example, the list of multiple violations of the civil rights of parents and children in The United States District Court Civil Action # 90-182 and civil rights violations in other family court venues throughout the United States of America as follows:
 - The deliberate encouraging of division between spousal litigates in Family Court encouraging and in some cases forcing divorce action to the ultimate demise of the family unit in the United States.
 - The establishment of networks of private family services with the friends and associates of Judges and Court supported employees and attorneys directly benefiting from the deliberate destruction of the family in the Family Court Systems of the United States.
 - The ordering of impossible and outrageous child support and maintenance requirements on fathers with no basis in fact.
 - The malicious and deliberate placing of minor children into child abuse with no provision to provide for their health or safety.
 - The harassment and incarceration of fathers and the alienation of fathers from their children causing the unnecessary suffering of the children without their fathers.
 - Additional and multiple civil rights violations in family court systems of the 4th and 18th Judicial Districts of the State of Colorado wherein there is no remedy but to return to the perpetrators to restore the rights violated. This is the only venue in the US where human and civil rights can be openly violated without the protection of the Constitution of the United States of America.
 - The following are a sampling of web sites where a pattern of civil rights violations within the US family court systems are evidenced similar or identical to the violations in the Wilfred cases referenced herein and more. Additional cases and web sites can be supplied upon request:

<http://www.thepriceofliberty.org/04/09/30/press.htm>

2. The list of alleged offenders and or those local, national or international government agencies and entities who either took part in all or part of the above offences or were informed of the criminal activity or abuse of children and under their public responsibility to protect and defend the rights and safety of children and their parents, stood by and did nothing or worse, participated in a deliberate cover-up of the alleged activity, including but not limited to DA's John Suthers, Jeanne Smith and the El Paso County, Colorado Office of the District Attorney; DA, Lawrence Bowling and the Arapahoe County, Colorado Office of the District Attorney; the 18th Judicial District of the State of Colorado and the Honorable Judge Joyce Steinhardt; the 4th Judicial District of the State of Colorado and the Honorable Judge Thomas K. Kane, the United States Justice Department, President William J. Clinton, the Justice Department of Canada and the International Hague Commission.

Wherefore Plaintiff prays that:

1. This Honorable Court and all of its resources available through its media Investigators and We the People move to investigate and provide a full report on the allegations listed in The First Claim for Relief, and if the Defendants hereto are found guilty, demand the restoration of the rights of families in the Family Courts of the United States of America with a special emphasis on the safety and security of the children and the restoration of their relationships with both parents. That such be brought forward through the media and public opinion before the Supreme Court of the United States to protect and defend the rights of individuals in the Family Courts of the US as a part of the US Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

The individuals and entities in their public capacity alleged to be guilty of the offences hereby listed in the First Claim for Relief and those offences referenced in the factual basis shall be fully investigated and if found guilty, must be brought before the civil and/or the criminal justice systems of their jurisdictions to be made fully answerable to any and all charges or offences.

2. Issue an order for such other and further relief as this Honorable Court may deem proper.

Respectfully submitted on this 6th Day of December, 2004,

Harmon L Wilfred (Original signature filed with the Court)
